United Way Tocqueville Society brings together a visionary group of individuals who share a keen devotion to this community and to its future generations. Named after French historian Alexis de Tocqueville who recognized, celebrated and immortalized the true spirit of volunteerism that lives in America’s heart, the Tocqueville Society distinguishes itself as an influential group of over 870 business, civic and philanthropic leaders who share a passion for improving people’s lives and our community — personally and collectively.

Membership to the Tocqueville Society is granted to individuals who contribute at least $10,000 annually to United Way.

Membership benefits

As a Tocqueville Society member, you’ll have the opportunity to participate in a variety of community and social events and connect with other business, community and philanthropic leaders, who are like-minded in their commitment to our community. Among the many benefits members enjoy:

- Exclusive invitations to annual events, such as the Annual Grand Reception at a private home
- Personal and professional networking opportunities like our Tocqueville Tuesday monthly series. Past speakers have included Melissa Medina, president of eMerge Americas; Kobi Karp, founder/principal in charge of Kobi Karp Architecture and Interior Design and Manny Diaz, head football coach, University of Miami
- Admittance to prestigious social and volunteer events
- In-depth briefings and a first-hand look at community challenges and solutions
- One-on-one orientation with relationship manager
- One-on-one consultation on personal, philanthropic goals
- Tocqueville Society participation for significant other
- Women United participation for women of Tocqueville Society
- Young Leaders participation for Tocqueville Society members under 40
- Preferred seating at United Way events
- Special access to meet and greets
- Prominently featured in The Red Book
- Tocqueville Society pin

About United Way of Miami-Dade

Since 1924, United Way of Miami-Dade has been an enduring force in changing lives and creating a positive impact in our community. On this 95th anniversary, our community of volunteers and advocates are more committed than ever to working with us to build a stronger Miami. It is through our work in education, financial stability and health that we effect change — transforming vulnerability into empowerment, poverty into opportunity and despair into hope.

Join us to build a stronger Miami.

Become more deeply involved in United Way’s mission. Join us and change lives through philanthropic leadership.

To learn more about this exclusive group, contact (305) 646-7020 or tocqueville@unitedwaymiami.org.