Women United brings women together in the spirit of philanthropy and service through advocacy, volunteer opportunities, professional development luncheons, networking and social events. More than 2,700 strong, they are Miami-Dade’s most influential women who are passionate about making a difference. From improving the quality of education for women and girls to providing the tools and support they need to be more economically resilient, Women United is committed to responding to critical community needs and bringing lasting change to Miami.

With an investment of $1,000 or more annually, members set a strong example for others to follow.

About United Way of Miami-Dade

Since 1924, United Way of Miami-Dade has been an enduring force in changing lives and creating a positive impact in our community. On this 95th anniversary, our community of volunteers and advocates are more committed than ever to working with us to build a stronger Miami. It is through our work in education, financial stability and health that we effect change — transforming vulnerability into empowerment, poverty into opportunity and despair into hope.
