FUNdrasing ideas

Engaging and easy ideas that put a little fun in your virtual fundraising

So many of us are working remotely now. Because of the current crisis, this year’s campaign will challenge your creativity. Here are some new ways of engaging all your team members while continuing the fight for a stronger Miami.

- Virtual walk or run
  - You can use the great outdoors as an excuse to continue the fight for a stronger Miami. Create a Zoom warm up for everyone that signed up, and little competitions throughout—best themed outfit, most social media participation, as examples—to keep everyone energized and engaged.

- Parking spot prize
  - Dedicate a few select parking spaces and sell tickets for a chance for winners to park like a VIP.

- Days off drawings
  - Host a “days off drawing” in which employees purchase tickets for a chance to win days off from work.

- Virtual cooking with a local chef
  - Strengthen your cooking skills by organizing a cooking lesson, hosted by a local chef via an online platform like Zoom. Time it and send a recipe list of pre-selected ingredients, so each participant is prepared.

- Online gaming tournament
  - Ask co-workers to donate $5 to join the festivities.
  - They can create virtual teams to play a variety of games vs. different departments.
  - Some ideas include:
    - Trivia
    - Poker
    - Chess
    - Pictionary
    - Family Feud

- Virtual Lip sync or karaoke competitions
  - Ask executives or departments to go head to head in some virtual live singing fun for a cause.
  - Employees can donate to ensure their executive is the “lucky” winner to perform.
  - Executives can buy their way out of the competition, for a cost.
